Note

Established by Henry Hu and Chung Chi-yung in 1971 to provide higher education, the first campus was in Happy Valley. In July 1971, it started to provide higher education section in daytime and night time (#####), and Form 6 to Form 7 education (#####).

In 1972, Shue Yan Secondary College (#####) opened in Gap Road, Wan Chai. It was operated and funded as a private secondary school, providing From 1 to From 6 education. At the same time, the campus was used by Shue Yan College (#####) at night time (##) to provide tertiary education while the Happy Valley campus used for day-time (##) tertiary education courses.

In 1976, Shue Yan College was (#####) registered as a Post-Secondary College under the 1964 Post-Secondary Colleges Ordinance. It was renamed "Shue Yan College (#####)" in the same year as the institute was entitled to award post-secondary diplomas. The higher education sector moved to Monmouth Path, Wan Chai Campus in 1977, and moved to Braemar Hill Campus in 1986, later became Hong Kong's first private university.

The secondary education sector remained the name 'Shue Yan Secondary College (#####)' and stayed in Wan Chai Campus since 1977, and closed in 1993.
